Glossary

Avruga: is a product made from herring and other products. It is marketed as a caviar substitute. Unlike caviar, it does not contain fish roe.

Bomba rice: is the rice used for paella and has a higher absorption quality.

Brioche: is a pastry of French origin that is akin to highly enriched bread. The high egg and butter content gives it a rich and tender crumb.

Edamame bean: is a preparation of immature soybeans in the pod. The pods are boiled or steamed and often served with salt.

Jamón serrano: "Serrano ham", literally "ham from the sierra, or mountains", is a type of jamón (dry-cured Spanish ham), which is generally served in thin slices, or occasionally diced. The majority of serrano hams are made from the landrace breed of white pig.

Lovage: is a herb that has a dark green leaf with the look and smell of celery and yellow flowers that bloom in June / July. The lovage plant was cultivated in medieval times for culinary and medicinal purposes.

Musquée de Provence pumpkin: is an heirloom pumpkin originating from southern France, with a deep orange flesh (at Sault we use a locally grown organic product from Mt. Franklin).

Romesco: Catalanian (Spanish) thick sauce made with roasted almonds, hazelnuts, tomato, garlic, capsicum, olive oil and vinegar.

Sablé Breton: is a French shortbread-like cookie. It hails from the Brittany region. It is known for its rich flavour and its crumbly texture
