SUMMER AUTUMN MENU

(Dietary information)

The word tapas means 'cover' and comes from the old Spanish tradition of covering drinks in bars and restaurants with a piece of bread or a slice of jamon to stop flies and insects from taking a sip. Please enjoy the food produced by the chefs at Sault, led by our Spanish-born head chef, Santiago Nine-Fernandez.

Glossary

Argan oil: is a plant oil, produced from the kernels of the argan tree that is endemic to Morocco. In Morocco, argan oil is used to dip bread in at breakfast or to drizzle on couscous or pasta. Moroccan cuisine has many influences in Spanish cuisine.

Avruga: is a product made from herring and other products. It is marketed as a caviar substitute. Unlike caviar, it does not contain fish roe.

Brava sauce: is a dish native to Spain, often served as a tapa in bars with potatoes. The sauce is made of olive oil, tomato, garlic, red pepper, paprika, chili, and vinegar. In some areas, the dish is traditionally served alongside aioli, known as patatas mixtas.

Brioche: is a pastry of French origin that is akin to highly enriched bread, whose high egg and butter content give it a rich and tender crumb.

Chicharrón: is a dish generally consisting of fried pork belly or fried pork rinds; chicharrón may also be made from chicken, mutton, or beef.

Churro: is a fried-dough pastry, predominantly choux-based snack. Churros are popular in Spain, Portugal, France, the Philippines, Ibero-America and the Southwestern United States. In Spain, churros can either be thin or long and thick.

Edamame bean: is a preparation of immature soybeans in the pod. The pods are boiled or steamed and often served with salt.

Gazpacho: is a soup made of raw vegetables and served cold, usually with a tomato base, originating in the southern Spanish region of Andalusia. Gazpacho is widely eaten in Spain and neighbouring Portugal particularly during the hot summers, as it is refreshing and cool.

Harissa: is a North African hot chili pepper paste, the main ingredients of which are roasted red peppers, Baklouti pepper, serrano peppers and other hot chili peppers and spices and herbs such as garlic paste, coriander seed, saffron, rose or caraway as well as some vegetable or olive oil for preservation. It is most closely associated with Tunisia, Libya, Algeria and Morocco.

Labneh: is yoghurt that has been strained to remove its whey, resulting in a thicker consistency than unstrained yoghurt, while preserving yoghurt's distinctive, sour taste.

Mahón cheese: is a soft to hard white cheese made from cow's milk, named after the natural port of Mahón on the island of Minorca off the Mediterranean coast of Spain. Mahón has some characteristics specific to it, despite aging. In general the cheese is buttery sharp, slightly salty and lightly aromatic (sweet and nutty aromas) in taste.

Manchego cheese: is made in the La Mancha region of Spain from the milk of sheep of the manchega breed. Manchego has a firm and compact consistency and a buttery texture, and often contains small, unevenly-distributed air pockets. The cheese has a distinctive flavour, well developed but not too strong, creamy with a slight piquancy, and leaves an aftertaste that is characteristic of sheep's milk.

Mojo rojo and Mojo verde: Mojo meaning "sauce" is the name, or abbreviated name, of several types of sauces, varying in spiciness. Mojo originated in the Canary Islands, where the main varieties are red mojo (mojo rojo) and green mojo (mojo verde). These sauces were then adopted in Spanish cuisine.

Piquillo pepper: is a variety of chili, capsicum, having a sweet taste with no heat, fruits about 7 cm long, well suited for growing in pots, that is traditionally grown in Northern Spain near the town of Lodosa

Romesco: Catalanian (Spanish) thick sauce made with roasted almonds, hazelnuts, tomato, garlic, capsicum, olive oil and vinegar.

Xixona turrón (nougat): is a confection, typically made of honey, sugar, and egg white, with toasted almonds or other nuts, and usually shaped into either a rectangular tablet or a round cake. Originating from the town of Xixona, it is frequently consumed as a traditional Christmas dessert in Spain as well as countries formerly under the Spanish empire, particularly in Latin America.
